THE DRUMMING MATCH. The Chicago Post of the 15th ult., contains a lengthy account of the drumming match at the opera house in that city, from which we extract the following:

At least about two thousand people gathered Saturday evening to hear two famous drummers compete for the championship of the United States; and if we may judge from the applause, no opera, nor drama, nor lecture ever pleased an audience so well.

The fact was that the spectators were interested more in the drummers than the drumming. The many who knew Nevans and his unequaled performances on his favorite instrument, were determined that he should gain all the credit due him; while the multitudes who had been interested by the story of Hendershot and the battle of Fredericksburg were equally determined to show their admiration for a young hero.

After the contest the eleven judges retired and after a few minutes returned. Colonel Smith, the chairman of the judges then announced that they had awarded the championship to Robert Henry Hendershot by a vote of six against five for Nevans. Hendershot accepted the championship with a short speech. Then the friends of Mr. Nevans presented him with a gold chain, and the audience departed.

Mr. Nevans, who probably thinks the championship ought to be awarded to the best drummer, has published the following note:

"The undersigned desires to state to the public his belief that the contest between himself and R. H. Hendershot, at the Opera House, on Saturday evening, was not decided in strict accordance with musical rules which should govern such trials. While he cheerfully accords to the committee acting upon the occasion sincerity in their decision, and a conscientious desire to do justice, still he claims that they were not musically educated men, and on this score incompetent to determine the matter. He therefore, challenges Mr. Hendershot to a renewal of the contest at the same place, within ten days from this date, for any sum of money from $500 to $1,000, subject only to the following conditions: That his competitor shall select three men of musical education, while he will select a similar number, to act as judges. The six so chosen shall in addition choose six other thorough musicians, and to the committee so constituted, the contest shall be referred for final decision. WILLIAM NEVANS."

Mr. Hendershot, who seems better satisfied, publishes the following card:

"I, R. H. Hendershot, having been declared champion drummer of the United States, as I have before publicly stated, will accept any and all challenges offered me in the future, omitting those which come from my late opponent, William Nevans.

"R. H. HENDERSHOT,
"Drummer-Boy of the Rappahannock."

New steps in Mr. John C. White with the following letter:

"Chicago, Feb. 18, 1867.

"Robert H. Hendershot, Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock—Dear Sir: You having been declared the winner of the late drumming match, I hereby repeat by challenge (to play the 'winner'), and will compete with you for the championship of the United States, at Crosby's Opera House, at any time you may designate, within thirty days; the programme to embrace operas, andantes, polkas, schottishes, quicksteps, playing by note and playing with brass band, orchestra, piano, and fife.

"Trusting that this challenge will be promptly accepted in accordance with your statement, I remain yours truly,

"JOHN C. WHITE,
"Drummer Boy of the Army of the Cumberland."

SOARING.—The London Telegraph "has no particular pleasure in pointing out the shortcomings of the clergy," but "feels that a passing word of chronicle and appreciation is due to the Rev. Joseph Charles Edwards, rector of Ingoldsmills, in Lincolnshire, England. That reverend gentleman's debts amounts to two thousand three hundred pounds, the assets to only seventy; but the most noticeable thing about him is the particularly high tone in which he writes about his difficulties. To one correspondent he says: 'Do not deceive yourself that (sic) any machinations of the devil, clerics, or lawyers will harass me. I soar above such things, and I treat with supreme and sacred contempt the miserable efforts of brainless persons and legal buffoons to vex my indomitable spirit.' We should not much admire a poet, who, on being asked for payment by his bootmaker, considered it proper to answer in the words of Mr. Tennyson, 'Do not vex the poet's mind with thy shallow wit!' but there is something almost sublime in a clergyman, who, when solicited to pay his debts, replies, 'Sir, accept the assurance of my sacred contempt. I will now soar above!'"

NAPOLEON IN GREEK.—A chapter of Paris gossip in the London Herald contains the following:

"At the faubourg they are just now fond of Greek and anagrams. Here is a fair sample:

N apoleon.
A poleon.
P oleon.
O leon.
L eon.
E on.
O n.

"They tell you that every one of these words is a Greek word, that their whole forms a Greek sentence written in this order: Napoleon on o leon leon eon apoleon poleon, and that the sentence means in English 'Napoleon, being the lion of the people, was marching on destroying the cities.'"

A MILESIAN Sergeant was drilling an awkward squad of recruits one day, and was vainly trying to impress on them the importance of stepping off with the left foot at the command "march." The very next time he gave that command, several of the inattentive recruits stepped off with the wrong foot. This put him in a towering passion, and he shouted: "Oh, ye blaggards! didn't I tell ye that the right fut wasn't the right fut; the lift fut is the right fut."

A CERTAIN Mr. Coffin once being blessed by the birth of a son, a friend offered one hundred dollars for the privilege of naming the child. The offer was, however, declined, but it was proposed to christen the child [illegible]

Fenia.

The defection, skedaddling, cowardice, or whatever it may have been, of the great Fenian leader, James Stephens, seems not to have dampened in the least the Fenian ardor. In the United States the rival factions, either under President Roberts or General Gleason, the latter of whom succeeded Stephens, are as active, and we suspect as bitter as ever. But in Ireland the revolution, or at least outbreak, seems to have commenced in earnest. From recent telegrams, contradictory and unsatisfactory as they are, we deduce that the whole South of Ireland is in open revolt. England is pouring forces into the uneasy Isle and will be very likely to crush out by sheer force of numbers and better equipment of armies the brave Fenians. We cannot but think that the present movement, like the raid on Canada, is premature and unwise, and hardly possible of success, yet the heroic Irishmen will have the sympathies of the civilized world. Evidently disgusted with the bickerings and quarrels of the rival factions in America, from whom they expected material aid, in money, arms and men, the Irish Republicans have determined to rely upon themselves; to depend no longer on vapid promises and delusive hopes. Whether this be prudent and wise, just now, it is brave, chivalric and patriotic. They cast their all into the cause and trust in the God of Battles for a safe deliverance. The following is a proclamation issued from the central organization. It speaks brave if not hopeful words:

Dublin, Jan. 28, 1867.

To all whom it may concern: In the present momentous crisis of Irish nationality, when in the eyes of the world the question of Ireland's existence or total extinction as an independent nation seems trembling in the balance, we, the representatives of the Republican party in Ireland, deem it our duty to make known to all true sympathizers with our down trodden race and oppressed nationality, that we have taken our final stand on the high vantage ground of self-reliance—that, taught by years of bitter experience, we no longer base our hopes of success upon the co-operation of our countrymen in America; and that we repudiate, once and forever, the degrading doctrine that Irish liberty and Irish rights are not to be won without assistance from foreign and external sources. No longer shall we be dominated by the autocratic dicta of a single will; no longer shall the destinies of our race hang upon the strength or weakness of a single mind. Our lost opportunities and blighted hopes proclaim, trumpet-tongued, that the time for such feudal administration of our affairs is past.

From a deep conviction of this truth, we, the Republican representatives of Ireland, formed, on the 17th instant, a Directory, with supreme control of the organization. On the 24th we became aware of the action of our countrymen in America in the deposition of Mr. Stephens and the election of General Gleason to the vacant head centership. While viewing these matters with indifference, and as entirely unconnected with ourselves, we still trust that we retain the sympathy of our expatriated countrymen, wherever they are to be found. But not to them alone do we appeal for sympathy; when our struggle for independence shall be inaugurated the whole world shall behold the champions of liberty, of every race and every nationality, rallying round our banner of rights. Then, and not till then, shall the soldier and the patriot be recognized for his true worth, and the self-sufficient fool and intriguing coward forced to wallow in the mire of his own infamy.

Ere long shall the world behold the spectacle of a nation uprising in its might, strong in its self-confidence and conscious right, to win its way to its legitimate place among the people of the earth, or set mid a halo of blood and glory which shall serve as a lode star of liberty to future generations and succeeding ages.

Remembering always that fortune favors the brave and enterprising, however adverse she may appear for a time, we resolve to commit ourselves to energetic and independent action, as the only course now befitting brave and honorble men, sedulously eschewing for the future all unnecessary exposure of our plans by public display of lip-patriotism.

Such being the sentiments which actuate us, we shall enter fearlessly upon the course we have marked out—and may God defend the right.

The rising at Mallow Junction, and the disturbances evidently intended to secure to the Fenians the great Irish quadrilateral formed by the cities of Cork, Limerick, Kilkenny and Waterford, have been in pursuance of the foregoing proclamation. The cable dispatches continue to report, every few days, that the rebellion is crushed, "all is quiet in Ireland," etc. But the very reiteration of these assurances proves that the revolt is assuming very considerable proportions. For nearly a year the Turkish Government has been sending over the continent of Europe similar soothing dispatches concerning the rebellion in Crete. According to them, that rebellion has, during the last six months, been "crushed" nine hundred and ninety-nine times. Our dispatches published yesterday, contained this significant telegram:

"It is stated that private information has been received to the effect that Sir Frederick Bruce advised the British Government to permit no more news of Fenian risings to be forwarded over the cable."

The last cable dispatch, dated London, March 13, therefore assures us that "Ireland is quiet; no new demonstrations are reported." The New York Fenians evidently doubt it. We fear that the Green Isle is entering upon a sea of blood.

AN EDITOR IN LUCK.—At the head of the editorial column of the Helena Democrat, of March 7th, we find the following:

John P. Bruce has been appointed by the President, and confirmed by the Senate of the United States, Secretary of Montana, for four years.

AN Irishman being in one of our up town churches, where the collection apparatus resembles an election box, on its being passed to him whispered in the carrier's ear that he was not naturalized, and could not vote, but he was ready to make a speech.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

Washington, March 14.

In the Senate, Ramsey, from the Committee on Post-offices, reported back favorably the bill authorizing the Atlantic Telegraph Company of New York, to make soundings and lay a cable on the American coast, to connect with the French coast.

The supplementary Reconstruction bill was read at length. Drake, of Mo., offered some amendments, but they were rejected.

Ramsey introduced a bill authorizing the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to extend their road westward through the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona to the eastern boundary of California, and, with the consent of that State, through the same to the Pacific Ocean; said Company to be entitled to the same privileges, grants of land, bonds, etc., as are allowed the Union and Central Pacific Railroad Companies.

Senate adjourned.

In the House, Julian introduced a bill to fix the time of election of Representatives and Delegates to Congress.

The bill to constitute eight hours a day's work for all mechanics and laborers employed by or on behalf of the Government, was referred to the Judiciary Committee. A motion that the bill be immediately put on its passage was objected to.

House adjourned.

New York, March 14.

F. Kurb, Commissioner, etc., arrived here yesterday from Aspinwall, N. G., with documents relative to the right of inter-oceanic railroad communication, recently granted by Costa Rica to Gen. John C. Fremont and associates.

Detroit, Mich., March 14.

The Democratic State Convention has nominated Sanford M. Green for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the Reconstruction law of Congress, enfranchising the blacks and disfranchising whites, as arbitrary and unconstitutional.

Cairo, Ill., March 14.

Reports from the Arkansas river country show great destruction of property and suffering of the inhabitants by the late floods. Twenty-seven lives were lost at Helena—mostly freedmen.

Cincinnati, March 14.

Specials report great suffering at Chattanooga and other points, in consequence of the floods. At Chattanooga, on the 12th, the water was from twelve to twenty feet deep in the city, many houses toppling over or floating away. The Mayor and his posse went foraging among the loaded cars for food; the agents of the road protested, but the Mayor said the people were starving. Twenty-five dead bodies were counted at Bridgeport, Ala., on the 12th, floating down the river. The loss of property is immense. General Carleton is at Nashville, Tenn., making efforts to send food to Chattanooga.

New York, March 14.

Money active at 6@7 for call. Government stocks not firm.

Liverpool freights quiet for grain; fairly active for cotton.

Dry goods active; a slight concession on some styles. Prints active.

New York, March 14.

The news from central South America is important. President Prado of Peru had abandoned the Dictatorship, and the Peruvian Congress had been regularly installed. A bill had been presented in the Congress, declaring that Peru would listen to no offer of mediation until Spain disavows the acts of her agents in the Pacific in violation of international law. A Panama correspondent reports that the revolutionists had defeated the Government forces in two engagements. Revolutionary symptoms had appeared in the North, revolts having occurred among the troops.

Providence, R. I., March 14.

The Democratic State Convention to-day nominated Lyman Pierce for Governor, and John H. Durfee for Lieutenant Governor.

Boston, March 14.

The lower House of the Massachusetts Legislature passed the Constitutional Amendment to-day—only 20 in the negative.

New York, March 15.

The Hudson river is open to commerce, and preparations are being made by numerous steamboat companies for the summer business.

At the Fenian headquarters things continue brisk. Arms and money are still being sent in. Several deputations from Circles of the Roberts faction have arrived and tendered aid to the men in Ireland.

The Herald's special says that information from Richmond represents that General Schofield's order assuming command in Virginia as Military Governor, gives entire satisfaction. It was read in the House of Delegates, and referred, after considerable debate, to the Committee on Federal Relations. Political movements are in progress all over Virginia. Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Fredericksburg, Williamsburg, and other counties have, by popular voice, called a State Convention under the Military Government law. The correspondent adds: "Gentlemen from Virginia inform me that the people there are ready to accept the terms of the Sherman bill, under the proposition of ex-Governor Brown. Information from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, Alabama, Arkansas and Texas, as well as Virginia, indicates that the negro vote will undoubtedly be on the rebel side, under this bill, as it also would be, I believe, in Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri."

New York, March 15.

Dr. Howe left by the Asia, yesterday, with the balance of $12,000 subscribed in this city for the Cretans, and $16,000 subscribed in Boston and elsewhere.

Information has been received that a cable intended for submarine communication between Cuba and Florida is now in satisfactory process of construction in London, and is expected to be laid by the early part of June next.

Distilleries belonging to Howe, Anthony, Barratt, John Ryan, and Charles Goodwin, in Brooklyn, were seized by the Revenue officers yesterday.

The Tribune says the House Committee on Foreign Affairs have not yet reached a conclusion on the Fenian sympathy resolution, but probably will report something of the kind. A delegation of Fenians was before them yesterday.

It is stated that all the new Senators will vote for the Colorado Admission bill, which will make more than the two-thirds requisite to carry it over the President's veto.

There are seven candidates for the New Orleans Marshalship, the most prominent being General Herron. The rebel Gen. Kirby Smith is also a candidate.

The World's special says there is a prospect that the trial of Surratt will not commence next week as was expected, but will be postponed until the June term of the District Criminal Court.

The Herald's special says, concerning the investigation of the affairs of the Treasury Department, that the Department pronounces the report of over issues of currency and bonds unfounded in truth. On the other hand, a boy testifies that he assisted the foreman of the Printing Bureau in burning a large quantity of paper used in printing some of the currency; that there is a large quantity of duplicate coupons on hand which have been redeemed by the Treasury, and that some $70,000 in fractional currency has been issued which has not been regularly paid for. Mr. Clerode is deeply impressed with the belief that there has been a very large over issue.

New York, March 16.

At a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Southern Famine Relief Committee, this morning, the following was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, This Committee is advised by General Howard not to relax its efforts to obtain contributions from the people of the Northern States on account of the proposed appropriation by Congress, the destitution being so wide spread and appalling as to demand all that can be done for its relief; therefore

Resolved, That the Committee earnestly request the Clergymen of all denominations throughout the Northern States to join in a simultaneous appeal for contributions, on Sunday next, March 17th.

(Signed) ARCHIBALD RUSSELL, Ch'n.
JOHN B. OWEN, Sec'y.

Beamsville, C. W., March 14.

The house of James Wilkins was destroyed by fire last night. Five children were badly burned; two are not expected to live.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE.]

London, March 14.

Government has just started four gunboats to Dublin, to be posted on Liffey river.

The Fenians who took refuge in Wicklow mountains are perishing from cold and hunger.

Florence, March 14.

Nearly half the Italian elections are to be repeated; the result is exceedingly doubtful. Garibaldi is at the head of the opposition party.

California Items.

Major John B. Cook, County Treasurer of Lake county, Cal., died at Lakeport on the 21st of February. Major Cook was a native of Kentucky, and 73 years of age at the time of his death.

Jose Sobano, convicted of the murder of an Indian at Knight's Valley, Cal., has been sentenced to be hanged in the jail-yard at Santa Rosa, March 22.

A. N. Francisco, for many years editor of the Sonora (Cal.) Union Democrat, died of liver complaint, March 2.

A little boy, five years of age, son of Jose Garcia, was drowned in the creek running through Olema, Marin county, California, March 1.

John T. Peabody, an old resident of California, who was twice elected Surveyor of Solano county, died in New York on the 19th of January.

The towns of Santa Rosa and Healdsburg, Cal., have been incorporated.

An order has been received from Yokohama, Japan, for $10,000 worth of California manufactured leather.

The San Francisco thieves have got to stealing plants and trees from the graves in Lone Mountain Cemetery.

Nevada Items.

The Enterprise, of the 10th instant, contains the following:

The large amount of bullion lately received from Reese River, will monopolize Wells, Fargo & Co's stages for some days. Yesterday morning, 1,472 pounds, worth $42,944.89 were shipped. All the bullion that they have shipped since the opening of the roads has been from the mines of Reese River. Our own stacks of bars, must, it appears, wait awhile yet for transportation.

Fifty-seven sacks of mail matter arrived in this city yesterday morning by way of the Placerville route—reading matter enough for a "month of Sundays." Four or five tons of mail matter are now lying at the Post-office in this city, awaiting transportation over the mountains. All will soon be shipped, however.

A FIGHT IN THE PACIFIC CARS.—The St. Louis Democrat says the managers of the Pacific Railroad, in their desire to assist those who are appointed conductors on the heavens-bound trains, are in the habit of issuing half-fare tickets to preachers of the gospel. Members of the Legislature who are on the opposition line, receive full deadhead tickets, showing that the railroad directors are more interested in the affairs of this world than the next. A few days ago a man who had formerly been a preacher, presented one of these half-fare tickets to a conductor. The conductor took up the ticket, and told the man he was no minister. The ex-expounder flew into a passion and smote the conductor with his fist. The conductor broke his lamp over the preacher man's head, and a brakesman sailed in and knocked several of his teeth down his throat. The ex-clergyman lives in Jefferson City, and is anxious now to have the road sold out.

THE leading citizens of Gallatin have communicated in person withe several of the officers of the commands along the Yellowstone and upon the strength of which, we are enabled to make the following statements: There are now at Fort Phil. Kearny, 1,500 efficient troops, of whom 500 are ordered to Fort Smith, higher up on the Yellowstone; while the apprehensions of our Gallatin neighbors are somewhat allayed by the assurance received, that a military force would soon be established within thirty miles of their settlements on the nearest sources of the Yellowstone.—Helena Herald.

AMUSING RUNAWAY.—The Helena Herald, of the 7th, says:

We witnessed on Monday a very handsome caper on the part of one of Travis Bros. & Co's fancy double sleighing rigs, in which a couple of dashing, "fast" young females were cutting a splurge about our streets, and by which they were "spilt" into a pile more resembling two turkey gobblers standing on their heads, with their profuse tail feathers well spread, than anything else we can compare them to.

THE NEWSPAPERS OF NEW YORK STATE.—The Advertisers' Gazette prints a list of the newspapers of the State of New York, excepting those of the city, with a classification of their politics, etc. The number of journals of all classes in the interior, according to the list, is just four hundred; but as this account includes the weekly and semi-weekly editions of daily papers, the number of different journals in the State, exclusive of those in the city, is about three hundred and fifty.

THE CHINESE SOLUTION OF IT.—The "celestials" are a cute class of people after all, as will be thought by the following ingenious explanation of a Chinaman at San Francisco a short while ago. Seeing the women walk along his street with their tilters on 'em, he remarked facetiously that that style was nothing but a Chinese invention by the ancient See Yup Company, and could be traced directly to an old custom of Pekin.

THE Helena Democrat, of March 7th, says there is now on exhibition a large plate of pure silver at the banking house of Nowlan & Weary, in this city, run from the furnace of A. M. Esler & Co., Argenta, Montana. It is a beautiful specimen, and is worth over $1,500. The richness of the silver lodes in Beaver Head county are now proved beyond question, and next summer we shall have lively times over at Bannack and Argenta.

The Indians' Own Account of the Fort Phil. Kearny Massacre.

During his late visit to Bozeman City, says the Helena Herald of March 7th, Neil Howie met and conversed with white men, who had been out gathering furs and trafficking with friendly Crow Indians, from whom they learned the first tangible, and probably reliable and detailed account as we will ever get, of the manner in which that unfortunate band of soldiers were exterminated, and so horribly butchered, near Fort Phil. Kearny.

The Sioux savages who participated in the battle related the affair, together with their stratagem used, to the Crow Indians, about as follows:

They (the Sioux) were about 2,000 strong—all warriors, without their families with them. Reaching a deep cooley, or ravine, near the fort, the main body of Indians were stationed on opposite sides of the defile, lying close to the ground, so as not to be seen, while they sent a small number of their best riders on a dash up to near the post, where the Government horses and mules were loose, and stampeded them. The commander of the post sent out about ninety men and officers to pursue the Indians, and recover, if possible, the lost stock. The retiring small band of Indians went slow enough to encourage their pursuit, and led their pursuers into the narrow defile, where hordes of demons were waiting to destroy them. The trap was successful in every particular. After the little command of troops had fairly entered the deep canyon, the Indians lining the sides of the mountains on either side, raised, and fired a volley of arrows and bullets, killing on the spot all but 17 of the soldiers, and every officer. These 17, though a number of them wounded, the Indians say, fought bravely, and killed some 15 or 20 of their number—among them the three principal chiefs—before they were shot down. But there was one of the brave boys in blue whom neither their arrows or bullets would fell; though he had numberless wounds he stood up and fought hand to hand till overwhelmed by their closing upon him, and carrying him off a prisoner to their camp, where he was finally tortured to death! The savages say, that aside from the force lining the fatal defile, they stationed 600 of their picked young warriors near the post, so as to make sure of its capture in case the troops remaining within it should be sent out to the relief of their comrades. But this was not done, although they could plainly hear the firing from the post.

We presume this is as faithful an account as we will ever be able to obtain concerning that most shocking wholesale butchery known in the annals of western warfare. It is certainly the most reasonable version we have heard or read, and are strongly inclined to believe it is correct.

Northern Mines.

The Idaho Statesman contains the following correspondence from a miner:

YUBA MINING CAMP, Middle Boise, Alturas county, March 1, '67.

The work of developing has been steadily going on in our midst during the entire winter, and ledge after ledge has been struck in tunnels, or thoroughly prospected with shafts sunk on them, some to the depth of one hundred feet.

Foremost among the ledges in our camp that are known to be true fissure veins of rich gold and silver quartz rock, are the Atlanta, Leonora, Lucy Phillips, Eclipse, Grey Eagle, Minerva, Magnet, Hard Times, Silver Star, John Bascom, Ed. Walls, Pacific, and Jessie Benton.

From the Atlanta the DeFrees company are taking rock which is very rich, and a portion of it will equal in richness the best rock ever taken from the Poorman of Owyhee. The ledge is twenty-two feet wide at a depth of ninety feet, and the average pay of the entire ledge is computed at $75 per ton. Mr. Clark, of Indiana, has purchased two hundred feet in the fourth east extension, for which he pays $10,000 in gold coin. The entire ledge, for a distance of over four thousand feet, has been thoroughly developed, and assures its owners of a fortune either by selling or working it.

The Lucy Phillips ledge is owned by Messrs. Massheco, Graham & Co., upon which they have spent a large sum of money, in running tunnels and sinking shafts in their lower tunnels. They have struck a splendid ledge, containing some very rich silver ore; in fact, the entire ledge is rich, and cannot fail to prove a valuable property to its owners, who intend putting up a large mill in the spring for the purpose of working the ore from it.

The Eclipse Discovery is owned by the same Company, and Mr. Graham has had a tunnel run this winter, striking the ledge at a depth of 150 feet from the surface. The ledge is over nine feet wide, and rich enough in gold and silver to satisfy the most avaricious.

The First Extension on the Eclipse ledge is owned by Messrs. Richard Thomas & Co., and upon it they have a tunnel run in; they also have nine feet solid ledge of rich paying ore.

The Grey Eagle is owned by Williams, Stevens & Co. They are sinking a shaft on a sixteen feet ledge, and getting very fine rock. They are down some ninety feet.

The Hard Times is owned by Col. J. W. O'Neil, and has been thoroughly prospected with tunnels. The Colonel is about starting from San Francisco with a twenty stamp mill to put up on his ledge.

Mr. Wm. Clemens proved the Minerva to be a rich ledge last fall, and we are expecting him with a mill for it as soon as spring dawns upon us again.

Besides the work I have already mentioned Mr. Wm. Johnson is running a tunnel on the Magnet ledge. Mr. Graham is more fully developing his Atlanta, Grey Eagle, Ed. Walls, and John Bascom ledges, by running tunnels that will strike them over 160 feet deep. Mr. Wm. Koons is running a tunnel for the Maine ledge. Mr. Wm. Burnett is taking rock from the Burnett ledge that pays in a mortar 50c. per pound. In fact, every one is busily engaged at hard work, trying to do that justice which the ledges of the Yuba deserve.

When spring opens we all look for happy and prosperous times, and by next fall, Boise City will be made gay by the smiling faces of many a Yuban.

NEW MILITARY POSTS IN MONTANA.—By private advices from Washington we are informed of the decision of the War Department, and the issue of orders to that effect, to establish two additional military posts within our borders, one at or near the old Government farm, the regular crossing of the Sun river, between Helena and Benton, to be a three-company post; the other is to be located at or near the mouth of the Muscleshell river, south side of the Missouri, to be a five-company post, and is intended, more especially, as protection for that vicinity as a desirable base of operations in connection with the river freighting of merchandise for the several supply points in this Territory.—Helena Herald, March 7th.

REGULAR TRIPS.—The stages by the Donner Lake route have resumed regular trips and usual time. This morning a full freight was taken for California. The stages go on runners from this city to the Gould & Curry ranch, at the foot of the Geiger grade; thence on wheels to Crystal Creek, and thence to Cisco on runners. The road is in tolerable condition. Between Cisco and Sacramento the cars are making regular time.—Trespass, March 8th.

A Chicago Inventor and his Success.—We clip the following from the Chicago Post:

We have just returned from a most interesting visit to the manufactory of Gard's Patent Brick Machine, 53 Jefferson street. We witnessed the practical operation of the invention, (it is put in motion at the request of all visitors,) with equal wonder and delight—it was turning out excellent brick at the rate of forty per minute. We advise our readers to see it forthwith, simply as a mechanical, automatic curiosity. It is visited by persons from all parts of the country, and leaves a conviction on the mind of every beholder, that the long sought problem has at last been solved, viz: the invention of a cheap, simple, portable brick machine, of great capacity and requiring little power. It is impossible to imagine anything more simple and direct in action, and its capacity is seen in the fact that it requires a very active, nimble-fingered person to secure the bricks as fast as made.

During the spring and summer of the past year the machine was greatly improved. The practical experience of the brick yard and the advantages of the machine shop enabled the inventor to develop the defects, and to apply the remedies. The machine is now absolutely perfect in all its parts, and the first purchasers will therefore have the benefits of all these improvements, the last of which was patented in November of last year. Since August last, several millions of these bricks have been used in this city. One block of buildings alone contains $10,600 worth. Many of them were used in the construction of the famous tunnel, and were pronounced by the inspector to be the best in the market.

We were shown by Mr. Gard his order book, showing that within the current week he had sold more than $11,000 worth of his machines and rights. He is entirely unable to supply the demand at his own works (fifty men), and is compelled to seek other assistance.

When we reflect that this machine was only patented in August last, and that no efforts whatever have been made to give it publicity, we may well congratulate our fellow townsman on the brilliant future awaiting his energy, patience and skill.

Hints to Farmers.—What Hoes to Use—In planting or hoeing corn, use the ordinary hoes in general use. Neither India rubber hose or cotton hose would be of any account of in a cornfield; no more would Hoe's eight-cylinder presses.

How to keep Corn.—The best place to keep corn is in a good corn-house, though some prefer to keep it in the system—in the juice. If they don't keep corn they keep corned.

Fences and Fencing—Good fencing is essential on a farm. Get a good "fencing master" to learn you. You can't repair a worm-fence by taking vermifuge. Neither can you cut a good whitewash brush out of brush fences.

To make your Stables warm in Winter—Set fire to them.

To Drain Land—Drink whisky, and spend all your time at the village tavern. This will drain you of all your land in a short time.

To make Stone Fences—Equal parts of whisky and cider. This is the reciprocal stone fence—the more you lay of it the more it will "lay" you.

Easy way to draw Saw-Logs—Draw them on a piece of paper with a crayon pencil. After a little practice you will be able to draw the largest kind of saw logs with ease.

Pork—Packing thread is of no use in packing pork. In curing hams the time varies. Hams that have got trichina can't be cured at all.

How to hold the Plow—Don't try to hold it out at arm's length. You can't do it. If you haven't a plow of your own get out an attachment on your neighbor's who owes you. Any justice can tell you whether you can hold it or not.

"Sir," said an indignant husband to his reckless friend, "you have abused my hospitality, you have kicked me down stairs and you have kissed my wife before my face. Beware, sir! A few more such outrages and, by Jove, you'll rouse the British lion!"

A Western paper thus notices a marriage: "Spliced—On the 8th, at the residence of the old cock, Sal. Chowder to Dobyn Darnit. May their mug of happiness be filled to the tip, and the glim of their merriness never be doused."

A woman in Chicago, on visiting her husband's office, discovering long hairs in his hair brush, has sued for a divorce.

And none, as yet, was heard to regret
That he ever gave him a call.
His honesty deals,
And nothing conceals
Regarding the wear of his clothes,
But speaks with the truth,
To men and to youth,
Which each of his customers knows
Hence, friends, one and all,
Go to Anker's Hall,
Walk boldly—don't cowardly creep.
For there you'll find,
All obliging and kind,
With Clothing tremendously cheap.

The citizens of Utah, Idaho and Montana are at all times cordially invited to call at ANCHOR'S POPULAR CLOTHING HOUSE, when in Denver, and examine his most Elegant and Tasteful Stock of Goods, which will be sold at Prices Guaranteed Lower than the Lowest.
